

Mechanic's Lien Act Seminar

Jeff Delaney of Bingham Law will present a session designed to familiarize participants with the “mechanics” of the Act. The session will include discussions the rationale for the existence of the Act as well as discussions on the trust provisions, the notice of lien and the claim for lien. Those completing the session should be more confident in dealing with situations requiring the use of the Act.